

SAMPLE EXAMINATION QUESTIONS

Guardianship interviewing is always directed to the ward and the ward's situation. Which of the following is the most accurate statement with respect to the proper focus of a guardianship interview?

- A. The professional guardian limits the interview to concentrate on objective data.
- B. The professional guardian generally permits the interviewee to talk about facts and feelings with no direction from the guardian.
- C. The professional guardian focuses the interview on emotions rather than facts.
- D. The professional guardian is responsible for helping the interviewee focus on any material, which appears to be related to the ward's situation.

In general terms, which of the following financial products is considered to involve the most risk?

- A. Life insurance.
- B. Annuities.
- C. Deposit accounts in FDIC member banks.
- D. Mutual funds.

Essay Question:

Larry is a new ward who communicates very little. He lives in a group home with six other people. He is rather shy and gets upset when new people come around. Name three things you can do during visits to get to know Larry and his wants and needs.