

National Master Guardian Star Achievement Award

Receiving the Center for Guardianship Certification's National Master Guardian Certification demonstrates the guardian's knowledge of advanced guardianship concepts and ethics and being on the cutting edge of guardianship issues.

A National Master Guardian Star is a National Master Guardian and a member of the National Guardianship Association, who also has an affiliation with his/her state association. This individual is nominated by his or her peers to be recognized as an example for other guardians.

Mary Galvez, NMG
Albuquerque, New Mexico
2019

Deborah S. Riley, NMG
Towson, Maryland
2018

The Honorable Kelly M. Cross, NMG
Bexar County, Texas
2017

Mark Sanford, NMG
Portland, Oregon
2016

Rebecca Lake Wood, J.D., NMG
Kansas City, Missouri
2015

Not Awarded
2014

Shay H. Jacobson, RN, MA, NMG
Burr Ridge, Illinois
2013

Kathleen Ann Eddy, NMG
Alton, Illinois
2012

Greg Mallowney, NMG
New Orleans, Louisiana
2011

Jean Krahn, NMG
Manhattan, Kansas
2010

Susan DeBoer, NMG
Reno, Nevada
2009

Vicki Alkire, NMG
Sarasota, Florida
2008

Julia Nack, NMG
Columbus, Ohio
2007

Carolyn Little, NMG
Springfield, Missouri
2006

Frederick D. Floreth, NMG
Litchfield, Illinois
2005

Gary Beagle, NMG
Vancouver, Washington
2004

Lexie Lamborn, NMG
Anacortes, Washington
2003

Colleen Colton, NMG
Ft. Worth, Texas
2002