

National Master Guardian Star Achievement Award

Receiving the Center for Guardianship Certification's National Master Guardian Certification demonstrates the guardian's knowledge of advanced guardianship concepts and ethics and being on the cutting edge of guardianship issues.

A National Master Guardian Star is a National Master Guardian and a member of the National Guardianship Association, who also has an affiliation with his/her state association. This individual is nominated by his or her peers to be recognized as an example for other guardians.

Not Awarded

2022

Not Awarded

2021

Angie Casavecchia, NMG

Carthage, Missouri

2020

Mary Galvez, NMG

Albuquerque, New Mexico

2019

Deborah S. Riley, NMG

Towson, Maryland

2018

The Honorable Kelly M. Cross, NMG

Bexar County, Texas

2017

Mark Sanford, NMG

Portland, Oregon

2016

Rebecca Lake Wood, J.D., NMG

Kansas City, Missouri

2015

Not Awarded

2014

Shay H. Jacobson, RN, MA, NMG

Burr Ridge, Illinois

2013

Kathleen Ann Eddy, NMG

Alton, Illinois

2012

Greg Mullooney, NMG

New Orleans, Louisiana

2011

Jean Krahn, NMG

Manhattan, Kansas

2010

Susan DeBoer, NMG

Reno, Nevada

2009

Vicki Alkire, NMG

Sarasota, Florida

2008

Julia Nack, NMG

Columbus, Ohio

2007

Carolyn Little, NMG

Springfield, Missouri

2006

Frederick D. Floreth, NMG

Litchfield, Illinois

2005

Gary Beagle, NMG

Vancouver, Washington

2004

Lexie Lamborn, NMG

Anacortes, Washington

2003

Colleen Colton, NMG

Ft. Worth, Texas

2002